new year's party raises the roof!

Friends and neighbours welcomed in the New Year at Newton Regis Village Hall by singing, dancing and partying their way into 2008.

Chairman of the village hall charity David Hedgecock said, "It was a great night. Everyone who attended had a really good time and we were please to see many new faces among the crowd."

The party was provided free of charge to local residents and was subsidised by the village hall charity.

have a laugh with friends

Villagers are being invited to take advantage of a top class comedy night soon to take place at the village hall.

Make a date to see the nationally acclaimed show on February 16th which is being run in conjunction with Live and Local as part of a drive to bring live entertainment into the village.

Star of the Show Mervyn Stutter is well known for his hit radio show and is sure to provide laughter and fun for everyone.

Tickets for the show are £6.50 for adults and £4.50 for children over 12. The money raised from ticket sales is all returned to Live & Local to cover the performance costs.

Bookings Secretary Tina Smith said, "This show looks like being a really great night out and offers something for all age groups. We hope as many people as possible will come along and enjoy it with friends and neighbours."

Tickets from committee members. The show starts at 8.00pm.
